Part I: Gold for a New Century

4 Epiphany in Boston, 2003: 9/11 and the Globe

Chapter 4 Discussion

- 1. Why do you think it took so long for journalists to discover the Church's cover-up of sex crimes by priests?
- 2. Consider the Florida "sunshine" laws: What advantage do they give news organizations? Is there a downside to society opening public records for media inspection?
- 3. Compare the Globe's Spotlight Team approach to the team assembled by the Sun Sentinel in Fort Lauderdale to investigate police speeding.
- 4. If you were Martin Baron would you have pulled the entire Spotlight Team off the Church investigation after the terrorist attacks? Why or why not?
- 5. What have been the global effects of the Globe Church stories in the years since 2003?

Chapter 4 Quiz

1.	Who owned the Boston Globe when it report A □ The Associated Press C □ The Boston Herald	ted the Church stories? B □ The Red Sox D □ The New York Times
2.	Who headed the Boston Catholic Archdioces A □ Cardinal Cushing C □ Cardinal Sin	se at the time: B □ Cardinal Law D □ Cardinal Spelling
3.	What interrupted the Spotlight Team's report A □ A Red Sox World Series C □ A lawsuit by the Church	ting? B □ 9/11 D □ A measles epidemic
4.	What did Globe readers see on Page One on A □ A Church apology	B The first story about a cover-up involving Father Geoghan
	C The last story about a cover-up involving Father Geoghan	D ☐ The announcement of the paper's Pulitzer Prize
	What was Michael Paulson's beat when the Spotlight Team began reporting the Church stories?
	A ☐ Entertainment	B ☐ General assignment
	C □ Religion	D 🗆 Courts